

The Working Group Algorithms for Computer Vision, Imaging and Data Analysis at the Department of Mathematics and Natural Sciences, Hochschule Darmstadt, Germany announces a position as a

Postdoctoral Researcher

with a starting date of January 1, 2024, or later. The position (German scale E13, 75%, including social benefits) is initially limited until December 31, 2025. Annual salary: approx. 45k €, depending on status. An upgrade to a 100% position, and a possible extension is intended.

The responsibilities of the position include research in the area Data Science / Machine Learning with focus on Computer Vision and/or Imaging. Active participation in the working group and motivation to further develop individual academic qualifications are expected. The responsibilities involve participation in the coordination of the EUT+ Data Science Laboratory, there are no teaching duties.

Your Profile:

- Completed PhD in Mathematics, Computer Science, Electrical Engineering, or comparable
- Strong background / working knowledge in Machine Learning / Data Science
- Knowledge in Computer Vision and / or Imaging
- Very good English skills
- Willingness to travel
- Willingness to work in a team

Advantageous, but not required:

- Knowledge in the field of Quantum Computing
- Experience abroad
- Good command of German language

Darmstadt University of Applied Sciences (hda) has a plan for the advancement of women and equal opportunities. hda is particularly interested in receiving applications of women. hda has been awarded a "Family-friendly university in the state of Hesse" seal, and offers its employees free public transportation.

In case you are interested please send a short letter of motivation and your CV (plus references) to

Prof. Andreas Weinmann
andreas.weinmann@h-da.de

There is no hard application deadline; applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Should you have any questions please feel free to get in touch.